

Space Studio & Gallery
presents...

Mark Rayner

Mark Rayner has been working as an artist since 2003, he is self-taught and was previously a garden designer. Mark uses a variety of mediums: ceramics, photography and latch hook rugs. Through his art, Mark explores politics, popular culture and all things weird and wonderful.

Notable Collections:

Mark's work is in The Wallace Collection and The Hocken Library (a collaborative piece between Mark & Paul Rayer) and in numerous private collections throughout New Zealand and overseas. He set up The Rayner Brothers Gallery with his brother Paul in 2007

Recent Exhibitions:

New Faces, Space Studio & Gallery
All Things Weird and Wonderful, Gallery 33
Creatures of Delight, Gallery 33
How Can You Say I'm Not Real, A Gallery
Sick Puppy, Thermostat Gallery

Awards:

Mark has been a regular finalist in the Wallace Art Awards and was the Winner of the Te Whare O Rehua, Sarjeant Gallery Arts Review in 2016.