

---

The South Mole Whanganui River Mouth circa 2006 Images of past South Mole and Harbour features in stark contrast to the present 'stripped back' version.

- Julia Ellery

---

---

G-Zone O-Zone B-Zone

Ozone holes expand
Plants adapt to this harsh change
Humans cover up

Jo Giddens | The VC Press

---

---

Exquisite Gesture

Elegant sketched lines
Simply hung in the balance
Elegant gesture

Jo Giddens | The VC Press

---

---

Desiree works in varied printmaking techniques producing hybrid works.
These 3 works are drypoints based on a trip to Venice in 2010.

- Desiree Singer

---

---

Kairakau Beach is a place I continue study through different mediums.
Here in print, it is seen from three different viewpoints.

- Rachel Stockley

---

---

Perpetual Lease legislation still has 860 years to go as 'current appropriate legislation' Perpetual Lease and Land locking is shameful, immoral and truly disgusting, however it is legal.
It must end peacefully through political will.

- Marty Vreede

---

---

Creating art is a meditative process that focuses my mind away from daily distractions.
Monotype allows me, the artist, the pleasure of spontaneous direct paint application.
This sense of freedom is liberating and energizing.

- Brenda Wallis

---