Meanings of the titles

Tejas:
In Sanskrit, Tejas is a classical term meaning "radiance," "brilliance," "splendor," or "fire".

Shraddha (श्रद्धा):
Faith (Sanskrit) "that which is placed in the heart" or "holding the truth in one's heart"

Jiva (जीव):
Individual soul (Sanskrit)

Mantra (मन्त्रम्):
A sacred sound, syllable, or word used as a mental tool to focus thought and transform consciousness.

Madrigal:
In Spanish, madrigal means a short, romantic love poem or a type of Renaissance vocal music sung by multiple voices without instruments.

Fandango:
A lively, traditional Spanish courtship dance performed by a couple accompanied by guitars, castanets, foot-stamping, and singing. The name is believed to come from the Andalusian word fandanguillo, meaning little dance.